CITY INTELLIGENCE.

[ For Additional City Intelligence see Firth Page.] REUNION MEETING OF THE YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.—National Hall was filled, last evening, by the friends of the Young Men's Christian Association, on the occasion of their grand reunion meeting.

The Association have grown so rapidly of late that their Hall on Chesnut street is found to be entirely too small to accommodate the targe membership. Accordingly, the Association re-solved to lease National Hall, in Market street, below Thirteenth, and last evening, as stated, the first gathering took place at that point. Peter B. Simons, President of the Association occupied the Chair, and at the appointed hour announced the first hymn, "Come, gracious spirit, heavenly dove," which was sung by the members of the Philometic Music Circle.

Professor N. K. Richardson then read a por-tion of Scripture, at the conclusion of which Rev. Dr. Church led in prayer. The journal was read by Dr. Rogers. After singing a chorus, Rev. Heber Newton was introduced to the audience, and made an address, in which he alluded to the enticements which cluster around young men who visit our great cities. He said it was necessary that young men should have provided for them proper amusements and recreations, and instanced among other things the gymnasium and chess as among the innocent recreations in which they could engage.

The hosts of evils which are pressing upon the young men of this and other great cities are powerful for injury. Intemperance he named as one of the most powerful evils, and warned all within hearing of his voice to escape from

After a chorus by the Philomelic, entitled "Watching over Israel." a brief address was de-livered by Rev. Dr. Beadle, in which he said, that while he did not wish to be understood as dissenting from what his young brother had said, nor to lessen the appliance which had followed the sentiments he uttered, he hoped to see young men have religious convictions so well grounded in them, that they would be beyond the power of sin and Satan to move them from the right way. Addresses were delivered by Rev. H. B. Ensworth and Rev. J. W. Jackson.

At the conclusion of these addresses an election of members took place, the names of about six hundred candidates having been pro-

The address of welcome to the new members was made by P. B. Simons, Esq., in which he congratulated the candidates on being admitted to this bond of union, and now that they were encircled by it, he hoped that they would en-deavor to be faithful in the discharge of their Christian duties.

He also exhorted the old members to gather round the new members, and thus strengthen them by their example and influence. The remarks of Mr. Simons were received with appliance by the audience.

The doxology, "Praise God from whom all blessings flow," was then sung, after which the benediction was pronounced, when the large audience dispersed to their respective places of residence.

Active steps will now be taken by the Society to secure the erection of a hall suited to the wants of the Association.

CONVENTION OF FIREMEN.-Last evening a convention of firemen, consisting of two detegates from each company, held an adjourned meeting at the Phoenix Hose House, Filbert street, above Se-venth. The object of the same was to take action upon the ordinance of City Councils, creating a Board of Commissioners for the management of the Fire Department. Wm. D. Kendlick, of the Columbia Engine, presided, and Jacob S. Stahl, of the Humane Hose, acted as Secretary. The committee of seven on resolutions, appointed at the last meeting, reported as follows:

To the Honorable, the Members of Select and Common Councils of the city of Philadelphia:

We, the undersigned, on behalf of a convention of firemen from the several fire districts of Philadelphia:

delphia, respectfully represent—
That the firemen of Philadelphia cannot fail to see, in the proposed action of your honorable bodies, the design ultimately to subvert the volunthe character and efficiency of the Philadelphia Fire Department as equal if not superior to that of any other city in the world. Therefore, and in defence of that character, and in support of this system, which has proved so useful in the past, we protest against any action of the municipal covernment tending to charge or destroy it or to government tending to change or destroy it, or to introduce in its stead a paid fire department for

We do, in the name and in behalf of the firemen of Philadelphis, enter our solemn protest against any action by your honorable bodies which shall any action by your honorable bodies which shall tend to supersede or destroy the volunteer system. We would further respectfully suggest that in adopting measures for the government of the men in the Fire Department the firemen themselves ought to be consulted. The same manliness that prompts us to sacrifice our lives as firemen "spring up the bells" of a just and natural pride to govern within ourselves our own department.

On behalf of the department we tender the conservation of all its newbers in any honest efforts. operation of all its members in any honest efforts to properly regulate and control its action, if such can be shown as now necessary. We would more especially deprecate any hasty action of the kind now proposed, as uncalled for by present emergencies, and we believe that all the objections which are said to exist, arising out of local causes, can be removed by a strict and impartial enforce-ment of the rules now established.

we would ask leave to suggest that hasty or ill-judged action by Select and Common Councils would in all probability create more cause for public discontent than now is said to prompt the proposed action of City Councils.

The President, Mr. Kendrick, objected, on the ground, as he stated, that if the report was pub-

FINANCIAL CONDITION OF THE CITY .-The Committee of Finance of Councils met last evening, for the purpose of considering the annual estimates for 1867. Among the items considered was the appropriation to schools. The salary of the Principal of the High School was raised to $2500, and the salary of all the professors was fixed at $1800 per annum. After disposing of the items, a motion was made to fix the tax rate for 1867. Several motions were made, one to continue the rate at $4, another to made, one to continue the rate at $4, another to make it $3, and a third to fix it at $4.65. Mr. Freeman, who moved the last mentioned rate, urged that if the city desired to maintain her credit she must pay her indebtedness as it has incurred, instead of resorting to funding it, as in the past. The appropriation for 1867, together with the loans already authorized, will require a rate of $4.65. Before determining the question the committee adjourned. tion the committee adjourned.

FENIAN ADDRESS .- The Fenian Brotherhood of this city have issued an address to the friends of Ireland in Pennsylvania. This address, after recounting the events of the past year, including the failure of the Canadian invasion project, which the address says was given up by thirty thousand men in obedience to the laws of the United States, urges the maintenance of the organization. Even more energetic efforts to that end than in the past are recommended. The address says:—"We are face to face with the issue, and from it there is no escape, save in the disgraceful abandonment of the lofty position we now occupy; leaving the future historian to inscribe on the pages of infamy the deep degradation of a degenerated race."
